Small Group Questions

Here are the questions for your small group settings this week .

1. In Paul's letter to the Colossians, he said we are to clothe ourselves with these qualities: compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, forgiveness and love. Which ones come easier for you than the others? Why is that? Which one is the toughest?
2. If we are rating each other on these traits, can we ever really be a 10? There is always room to grow.
3. How is your wardrobe? Are there new clothes you need to add? What are you willing to spend to get that outfit that God is asking you to wear?
4. What relationship, that you are involved in, needs work towards unity and peace? What imperfections that you have contribute to the struggles in your relationships?
5. In what relationship am I most challenged in consistently choosing the virtues outlined in Colossians? How am I asking God for help?
6. Christians are called to be Christ's ambassadors - this is not just for un-believers but also to those we live with. Why is it so difficult to be a godly ambassador in our own home?
7. Using a maxim of "A lot more is caught than taught" - What practical reminders and nuggets of relationships do you model for your children and spouse as you lead in your own household? Are you willing to change after seeking feedback from those you love?
