

Greetings,

I want to thank you for the wonderful tour through the Bethlehem Marketplace. Being my first time through, I was very impressed by all the actors, young and seasoned. You really presented a variety of stimulation for multiple senses. It was a wonderful and inspirational experience.

But, I especially had fun with the "money changer". He was great fun to taunt and tease. I tried my best to keep my shiny gold coin and after some "fun" taunting and teasing, I managed to succeed with a slight of hand trick. My intention was to still give the original coin back at the manager. But when I arrived at the manager I only put the coin from my right pocket in the manager. When I got home I found the other coin in my left pocket. I am truly sorry for the inconvenience. I can't wait for next year.

Sincerely,

Cindy
