Small Group Questions

1. Paul says regardless of where you work, work as if you were working for the Lord. Do you? What holds you back?
2. How might I continue to “work as unto the Lord” in retirement; making the most of every opportunity?
3. What kind of work has God specifically gifted/equipped you to do?
4. How has God used your previous jobs to teach you lessons and prepare you for your work today? What lessons has God taught you through your work?
5. Do our children learn the Godly perspectives of work from observing our actions on a daily basis?
