Small Group Questions

1. How do you support others who struggle at holidays and special events to get through those days and focus on blessings that are hard to "see" that come from difficult times and losses?
2. What does biblical wisdom mean to you as you persevere as a leader in and for your family - particularly as you get discouraged at times with all the responsibility that being a parent involves?
3. Joel also shared that a good father disciplines his children out of love and in love? How do you see that balance taking place in your family life or in the family you grew up in? Is there a way to achieve this balance?
4. Joel stated that we must teach our children Biblical wisdom. How do you obtain this and are you in God's Word enough to obtain this first for you before you share it with others? What are some practical steps to begin this effort in earnest?

Scripture used: Deuteronomy 6:6-9; Psalm 103:12-14; Proverbs 3:11-12, 20:7
