

Sermon Notes

Pastor Joel Greenwood
August 12, 2018

The Two Shall Become One Flesh Seeking Your One With Your Two

Here's the catch: _____ is your _____; your _____ is your _____.

Small Group Questions

1. Joel said our marriages need to be “abnormal” or “weird” compared to most of the marriages today. What aspects of our Christian marriages need to be different that most of society’s?
2. Should we not get married until we are fulfilled by God? How do we teach that to our children?
3. What needs or desires are you wanting your spouse to fulfill instead of looking to the Lord?
4. What do you do when one spouse wants to pray and the other doesn’t?
5. How do I stay committed and encouraged if I have to be the one to initiate prayer for it to happen?
6. What prevents you from developing a mindset to put God first in your life as you balance a perspective on marriage?
7. What keeps you from making the right choice in your marriage and changing for the better?

Scripture used: Matthew 22:36-37