We would like to thank everyone at Fairview for the cards, kind words, and prayers during the passing of my mother, Libby. We are so blessed to be part of the Fairview Church Family. God is good!

WOW (Women of Worth) presents a "No Sew Pillow Cover" demonstration, Tuesday, March 12, 6:30-8:30 pm, in the gym. You can bring your own fabric and a pillow form (new or old), to create your own pillow that evening or you can just come and observe how to create one on your own at home. Childcare provided. Please sign up at the Connection Center today.

Pack Away Hunger - Saturday, March 16. 9th annual meal packing event, packing 100,000 meals to be shipped overseas. 3 shifts: 8-10 am (28 more needed), 10-noon (30 more needed), 1-3 pm (45 more needed) - 300 volunteers total, ages 5 and up, are needed. Acorn Banks are available on top of the church mailboxes across from the toddler room and nursery and on the bulletin table just inside the front doors. The kids will break the banks next Sunday. The money will be given to Donny Riley, our missionary in Liberia, to be used toward finishing a group home for special needs children.

Visit our website, fairviewangola.com, for information about these and other events.

Our Day Care is hiring for a full-time position. Please contact the Director, Susan Ferrell, 260-665-8573.

We are always prayerfully seeking leaders of small groups. After prayer, if you are interested, please contact Pastor Norm. Training is available.

Even before the snow melts, we are planning our lawn mowing schedule. We are seeking a volunteer to mow our south property each week. It's about a 90 minute job. The church has a very nice joy-stick controlled, zero turn mower for you to use. Please see Pastor Norm.
